

The Seven Virtues

WISDOM

Having wisdom does not mean that a person is smarter than others. It means that he uses what he knows to live a better life.

COURAGE

Courage does not mean that you have no fear of danger. It means that you can face danger despite your fear.

SELF-CONTROL

Self-control means being able to stop when you have had enough of something, such as eating, playing, or even when you are working too much.

JUSTICE

Justice means being fair with others that we play and work with, regardless of race, color, or creed.

FAITH

Faith is the belief in God and things we cannot prove but we know are true. An eight year old Cub Scout said faith was when you flicked the light switch, you knew the light would go on.

HOPE

Hope means to look forward to good things you believe will happen. Always hope for better things tomorrow, but at the same time, you work hard today to make them happen.

LOVE

There are many kinds of love. Love of family, home, fellow man, God and country. Every kind of love is important for a full and happy life.
